The Lowest Cellar Can Have a Furnace

The Brien is the lowest heater made. This construction permits a sharp pitch to all pipes in a shallow cellar, and also allows some of the cellar pipes to be very close.

Warm Air will not flow through a nearly horizontal pipe and in order to get a satisfactory amount of heat from all registers the heater must be of low enough construction to give a proper pitch to all cellar pipes.

The Brien is the original heater of low down construction, and although it has been imitated it is still from 15 to 20 inches lower than any other make.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Remember the food sale at the Congregational chapel this afternoon at 2 o'clock.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict F. Maher are in New York for a few days, where he was called Thursday afternoon on matters of a legal nature.

Hon. E. G. McIntire, chairman of the Board of State Assessors, and his brother, Representative L. E. McIntire, left Friday for their home in East Waterford.

Among the births which have this week been recorded at the office of the city clerk is that of a daughter, Bessie May, who was born Jan. 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Marston.

Major George E. Frye went Friday afternoon to Damariscotta, where in the evening he installed the officers-elect of Keego Co., No. 35, U. R. K. of P., of that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duffy are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter which occurred Wednesday morning, Jan. 27, at their home on North street. The little one has been named Katherine Ida.

Augusta friends of Col. John J. Doolley, who is now at his home in Portland, will be glad to learn that he is able to be out and was down town Thursday for the first time since his recent severe illness in the West. He expects to pass a month at Hot Springs, Ark., in order to more quickly recuperate from the effects of his surgical operation and subsequent illness.

The musical director has arranged an attractive program for the services at the Unitarian church on Sunday next. At the morning service held at 10.30 A. M. the anthems will be: "Fear Not, O Israel," by Sticker, and "O Lord, Rebuke Me Not," Hayden. For the Vespers at 4 in the afternoon: Prelude, "Evening Song," Vaneycken; Offertory in A major, Bantiste; and Postlude, Finale in F, by Catocci. The anthems: "Thy Hallowed Presence," by Carter, and "Behold the Days Come," Hosmer.

The Kennebec Log Driving Co. will hold its annual meeting at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Feb. 16, at the Augusta House, for the purpose of choosing a moderator; to hear the report of the treasurer and to take such action as may be thought proper; to choose officers for the ensuing year; to take such measures for driving the logs the ensuing year, and raise such sum or sums of money for that purpose as may be deemed necessary, and to act upon any other business that may legally come before the meeting. This meeting will be followed at 10.30 and at the same place by the annual meeting of the Moose River Log Driving Co.

Since the taking at Spectacle pond, on the boundary line between Augusta and Vassalboro, of a number of pickerel affected with ulcers on their gills, it is reported that pickerel similarly affected have been taken from other ponds in this vicinity, the latest report coming from Webber pond, from which pond a party of four Augusta young men returned a few days ago, having been there on a fishing trip. During their stay they caught five pickerel which were afflicted with these ulcers and expressed their intention of sending the fish to Curator James of the State museum. Whether or not these ulcers affect the fish for food purposes is not known but people would scarcely care to eat them.

Webber & Hewett, realizing how closely the housewife must study the household economies, make every inducement for your patronage in their aid this morning. You will find most of the items displayed in the inviting windows of this store. The bakery department as usual offers substantial economies in home-cooked food.

Then there is the two-reel Imp attraction, King Baggot in "The Mill Stream." Circumstantial evidence, a much discussed phase of the law, is again brought up by King Baggot in this two-reel drama.

In Chapter 49 of "Our Mutual Girl" series Margaret meets the famous novelist, George Barr McCutcheon, who relates for her special benefit some of the incidents which have provided material for his famous romances.

Mary Alden in an effective seashore drama, "The Old Fisherman's Story," a Majestic feature; "The Best of the Year," a thrilling newspaper story from the Reliance studios, and an L-Ko comedy, "Gems and Germs," will complete the program offered to the public Saturday. Two complete shows tonight at 8.30 and 8.15 P. M.—Adv.

SATURDAY SPECIAL SALES
(Advertisements)

"I Do My Housework in Ten Minutes."

This is what a pretty and prominent suffragist told the New York newspapers, but she did not go into details sufficiently to show the average woman how to do likewise.

This age of labor-saving devices has witnessed great advances when such things are possible.

Wise women nowadays plan their work with the skill of efficiency engineers and they make free use of the many modern inventions.

One of the greatest modern labor savers is advertising in the live daily newspapers like the Journal.

It is the short cut to accurate and thrifty buying. It tells where to go and what to avoid.

It gives the market quotations. It tells what is new and useful.

Nowadays a woman who would formerly spend half a day "shopping around" can run through her favorite newspaper and make up her mind as to just where she wants to go for the article she desires.

A few minutes of real shopping time is consumed instead of half a day.

Have you heard the new Pathophone that everybody is talking about? Read what Melville Smith & Son say about it in their ad this morning. They invite you to let them demonstrate it so you can judge of its merits. All records demonstrated in the sound-proof demonstrating booth.

At H. J. Merricks boys best 2c heavy fleeced underwear now 2 for 35c. Women's heavy long 2 kimono's now 98c, 2c silk-velvet hats for 98c and a lot of 100c waists that are soiled a little but real bargains at 2c. See ad in this issue for other good things.

Crisp and delicious pop corn brittle 17c lb. at N. T. Folsom & Son. Fancy pound box chocolates 2c.

C. A. Messer offers the choice of all 50c neckwear at just one-half price today. The patterns are entirely new and exceedingly attractive.

The Red Tag sale at D. W. Adams Co. has developed a large shopping enthusiasm. Every department was busy throughout the day yesterday. Hundreds of desirable bargains remain for purchasers today. This is a buying opportunity of unusual proportions. Final reductions on all fall and winter merchandise should insure the speedy removal of all stocks. It is the firm policy of this store to start each new season with entirely new line of goods in every department.

Unquestionably values predominate throughout H. G. Barker's ad. Mr. Barker makes a plain statement of facts when he says "We prefer money to merchandise." He prefers to sell his stock at a sacrifice rather than carry it over another season.

E. Locke is selling native pork at a low price; 14c buys a good cut. He is showing some large fancy native hickories, also fowl and turkeys. Native ham and bacon, also plenty homemade sausage with and without cereal. Fine grapefruit 6 for 25c, larger 4 for 25c and 2 for 25c, good navel oranges 15 for 25c. Boston celery, lettuce, radishes, Bermuda onions, etc. Don't overlook the pastry counter. Well stocked with good things, beans, and brown bread. Fresh clams and oysters.

G. A. Ellinwood & Co. offers extra inducements on rubber door mats at 50c. You will enjoy visiting this store with its recent renovations. Everything is tastefully displayed on the street floor.

Nut chips, peanut and walnut flavor at J. G. Johnson's, 17c lb. The original Bangor taffy 27c lb. instead of 40c today.

If you are troubled with a bronchial cough the Bowditch-Webster Co. have a remedy in their White Pine Cough syrup with Tar. It is 25c a bottle.

In selecting the Sunday candy don't overlook the big box of Maine Maid Sweets which John Coughlin sells for 25c per pound.

A full dress suit for $35 in the well known Shuman make at E. E. Davis & Co. offers the maximum of satisfaction and carries the assurance of correctness. A gentleman's wardrobe is hardly complete without all the requisites for evening wear. The clearance in winter merchandise is still in progress here.

You are reminded that this is the last day of the Shoe sale at Stevens & Ballard's. Everything in the store, with the exception of rubbers is especially priced and presents a rare opportunity to provide for the needs of the entire family.

H. Chernowsky was in a quandary when the Journal representative called at his store yesterday. He did not know whether to offer 25c coats and suits at the regular price and present a 50c gold piece with each purchase or mark them $15 without any further inducements. He finally decided to offer everything in his coat and suit department for half price or less. Fifteen dollar garments $7.50 and so on up. Large displays, new styles and extreme values now rule at this store.

Webber & Hewett, realizing how closely the housewife must study the household economies, make every inducement for your patronage in their aid this morning. You will find most of the items displayed in the inviting windows of this store. The bakery department as usual offers substantial economies in home-cooked food.

At L. S. Young's cash market attractive prices rule: Fresh pork shoulders, 12 1-2 c, smoked shoulders 12c, strips of bacon 12c, chicken 22c, 2cra quarters lamb 12c, native pork loins 15c, hamburger 15c a pound, pig's liver, Kennebec amlets, scallops, clams in the shell and shucked, flannan haddle 10c pound. Green cut bone and Park & Pollard's dry mash.

Monday try Cote's Magic Water for easy washing. At your grocers.

J. B. Farrell has made extreme reductions on all cold weather goods for men.

Special prices on ferns at Robbins' green houses. Many potted plants here also with which to beautify the home. Primroses, cyclamen, azaleas. The usual full line of cut flowers for dances and "affairs" of the social season. Anything delivered free within the city limits.

Sell it—If it's worth money to somebody! Don't "wonder what to do" with that superseded musical instrument office fixtures, or piece of machinery or article of furniture. Advertise it in the Journal and the buyer who needs it will appear, with money in his purse.

Most radical reductions obtained on the season's furs, coats and suits at the Bussell and Weston Co. The ad this morning predicts a sensation in value demonstration. And well it may. Persuasion, with care the extreme low prices. This is the last day of the big silk sale which has been running for the past seven days with such pronounced success.

The Capital Fish Market suggests an economical Sunday dinner. Here you will find satisfaction and money saving.

At Millers Fruit store, old fashioned molasses cream-filled 14c pound, chocolate walnut ruffs, 17c pound, vanilla chocolates drops 2 pounds for 35 cents. All sizes in oranges at low prices.

Mrs. Charles H. Dill.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Dill of this city, which occurred at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, Jan. 28, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. V. Keating, 53 Upham street, Quincy, Mass., after an illness of four months. The husband and six children, G. F. Dill of Westfield, Mass., Mrs. R. J. Farrell of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. T. V. Keating of Quincy, Mass., Mrs. R. H. Hoxie of Wollaston, Mass., C. H. Dill, Jr., of Augusta, and Miss Georgia A. Dill of Springfield, Mass., survive. Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock this Saturday morning at St. John's church in Quincy and the burial will be at Quincy.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the neighbors and all our friends who so kindly assisted us in the illness and death of our little daughter, Lucille, also for the beautiful floral tributes. MR. and MRS. HAWES E. SEIGARS.

Quality Wins

"Sensation" is the One Word that accurately describes the Values now offered by the Bussell & Weston Co.

VALUE SENSATION IN FURS

Plainly speaking the bottom has dropped out of furs, we've firmly determined to absolutely clear the stocks—selling has been heavy during the past week, but assortments are still complete.

$70.00 Nat. Mink Set	$35.00	$50.00 Skunk Set	$35.00
$85.00 Nat. Mink Set	$50.00	$40.00 Civet Cat Set	$25.00
$225.00 Nat. Mink Set	$190.00	$15.00 Russian White Set	$7.50

25 Neck Pieces reduced from $5.00, $10.00 and $15.00 to	$2.98

HALF PRICE AND LESS ON SUITS AND COATS

They are, indeed, sensational—suit prices are so low that they hardly cover the value of the skirt alone;—Coat Prices barely meet tailoring cost.—All prices are but small fractions of actual value. Not one woman in Augusta can sensibly resist these items—they're without precedent in anyone's experience.

$10.00 and $12.50 COATS Are Now $5.00	$15.00 and $16.50 COATS Are now $7.98	$20.00 and $22.50 COATS Are Now $10.00

Home of Big Values, Low Prices, High Quality

Trials to determine the members of the Cony debating team were held Thursday evening at the High school building and from the candidates the following were chosen to represent the school: H. Withee, Joseph Goldberg, Edwin Lee, Fuller Ingraham (alternate). The members of the team are now hard at work in preparation for the first debate, of the year, which will be Feb. 12 with Bangor High at Bangor, the subject being, "Resolved, That Capital Punishment Should Be Abolished." Cony has the negative side of of the proposition. The High school team will also participate in the Bowdoin Interscholastic Debating League, the first debate to be held March 5. Prof. Philip Gibson is coaching the team for the coming debates.
